

Morality Play "Experience" And Gillette Here This Week

ERNEST GLENDINNING.

WILLIAM GILLETTE.

"Experience," one of the biggest dramatic successes of this generation, after achieving record-breaking engagements in New York, Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia, comes to the Belasco Theater next week with the same big cast which has won such triumphs in other cities. The engagement of "Experience" has been eagerly looked forward to by local theatergoers, for three times the play has been announced for Washington, and each time it has been postponed because of extensions of its engagements in other cities.

The play tells the story of Youth, or the average young man of today, who goes into the big world in search of fame and fortune. Ambition is his guide, and Experience travels along with him to keep him company. In ten brilliant scenes, various episodes in the life of the average young man are shown. The play includes "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife" and "Good Gracious, Annabelle," now enjoying much popularity in New York. Special stage settings have been designed and painted by Robert Edmond Jones, the noted artist whose scenic backgrounds for "Cailan," "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife" and "Good Gracious, Annabelle" have brought him into prominence. "A Successful Calamity" is in two acts and Mr. Hopkins has selected for Mr. Gillette's company such well-known players as Miss Estelle Winwood, Miss Ruth Findlay, Richard Barbee, Richard Sterling, Roland Young, William Devereaux, Nanart Kippen, Miss Marcella and others. It is said the new play will prove to be a decided departure as an entertainment differing from anything that has been done in the theater to date.

National—William Gillette.

Arthur Hopkins will present William Gillette in a new comedy at the National Theater next Monday night. The Gillette vehicle is entitled "A Successful Calamity" and is from the pen of Miss

It is said the new play will prove to be a decided departure as an entertainment differing from anything that has been done in the theater to date.

The much discussed season of the Boston-National Grand Opera Company will open at Poli's Theater tonight for four performances. The new season, "Verdi's 'Aida,'" is announced as the opening performance with an imposing list of artists, including Giovanni Zenatello as Radames, Maria Gay as Amneris, Lina Villani as Aida, George Baklanoff as Amonasso, Jose Mardones as Ramfis, Virgilio Lazzari as the king, with Robert Moranzoni as conductor.

The only repetition from the repertoire of last year is Puccini's "La Boheme," which is announced for Friday night, with Miss Teyte as Mimì, G. Mardones as Rodolfo, Thomas Chalmers as Marcello, Mabel Rigelman as Musetta, Virgilio Lazzari as Colline, Gioria Tullio as Schunard, Paolo Ananias as Pavarotti and Fulgenzio Guerrieri as conductor.

"Iris," the much-disputed novelty by Mascagni, will be the interesting offering for Saturday afternoon, with the Japanese prima donna, Tamaki Miura, in the stellar role.

For the farwell performance Saturday night Gnomos' "Faust" will be sung with Miss Teyte as Marguerite, Riccardo Martin as Faust, Graham Marr, as Valentin, Mardones as Mephistopheles, and the stellar cast.

Washington Man Says the New Herbal Remedy Has Relieved His Stomach Trouble.

The old adage "That nothing succeeds like success," is proven true every day. Plant Juice, the new stomach medicine, is a success, and it is such because it succeeds. Washington people know this, as is attested by the thousands of letters of indorsement from all over the United States, in every city where Plant Juice has been introduced, from people of standing and influence. Were Plant Juice merited, no such outburst of public approval could be had.

That Plant Juice is repeating its success is proven every day by the large number of testimonials received from local people, stating the great benefit they have received after years of suffering.

One of the most recent is that of Mr. Michael Mahoney, of No. 23 Third street northwest, who is a trusted employee of a large steel mill and has many acquaintances in this city. He said:

"I had suffered with my stomach for two years, and all the food that I ate would ferment and cause gas to form; I was bloated and in the worst kind of misery. My liver was affected, and I could never get a good night's sleep; I got very nervous and weak and was badly constipated. Nothing seemed to give me any relief, until I heard of your Plant Juice and began to take it. It gave me almost immediate relief, and now I am able to eat all of my meals and digest my food; I sleep well and am feeling the best I have in years; have no more headaches or dizzy spells and am not constipated. I am feeling like a new man, and am glad to give this public indorsement to Plant Juice. You can count me as one of your strongest boosters."

The Plant Juice Man is at the People's Drug Store, corner of Seventh and E streets northwest, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.—Adv.

Girls! Beautify Your Hair and Stop Dandruff

Hair Becomes Charming, Wavy, Lustrous and Thick in Few Moments.

Every Bit of Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out.

For 35 cents you can save your hair. In less than ten minutes you can double its beauty. Your hair becomes soft, lustrous and charming as a young girl's after applying some Danderine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.—Adv.

"Great Expectations," aside from being the work of the master novelist, combines action and mystery to an unusual degree—and is essential to motion picture success. "Great Expectations" will be seen at Loew's Columbia Sunday for the first half of next week with Louise Huff and Jack Pickford as co-stars.

Cosmos—Vandeville.

The Cosmos Theater next week will have a big novelty in "Four Yogs from India," the famous Rajah Jovadah, trol of mystics and mind readers, in exhibition of telepathy and thought transference, answering questions from the audience upon all matters that are proper subjects of inquiry. It will also present Bobby Heath, noted as a song writer, comedian, and producer, Tom Brown's great minstrel combination, the Princeton Five; Maude Ryan, the famous "laugh girl" comedienne; Mack and Hanson in "Busted," a musical burlesque; Dandridge and Merrill, in an artistic comedy of songs and comedy; Brown and McCormick; and Bianchi's Models in classic stately poses. The feature film will be the Blue Ribbon Vitaphone picture, "The Price of Fame."

Moore's Garden—Anita Stewart.

Anita Stewart, one of the most popular screen stars, will be the stellar attraction in a visualization of Mabelle Heikes Justice's story, "The Glory of Lohand."

Miss Stewart appears as a Russian princess, who is betrayed by her father to a worthless nobleman. She rebels and gains the enmity of the royal court, joins the nihilists and meets her fate in the person of a young prince who also has espoused the cause of the nihilists. Then comes the edifying banishment of the young prince to Siberia, where he meets and falls in love with a young woman, who later, leaving luxury and wealth, she joins the man of her choice in Siberia. Another charming star, Margarita Fletcher, will grace the screen Wednesday and Thursday in "The Butterfly Girl." Miss Fletcher wears laurels as the girl who displays grit and stamina. Friday and Saturday Antonio Moreno and Peggy Hyland will be seen in their latest photogenic success, "Her Right to Live," a heart story of a wife.

The production will be further augmented by other first run attractions and the Garden Symphony Orchestra will play.

Moore's Strand—"Pledge Island."

Harold McGrath struck a new note when he penned the story, "Pledge Island," and it has been made into a vasty entertaining film play with the leading characters portrayed by the handsome wood and May Allison. This photoplay will be the main attraction at Moore's Strand Theater Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The locale of the story is the Hawaiian Islands. A secret service agent falls in love with a girl he suspects of smuggling gems into this country. The backgrounds and locations are beautiful in the extreme. Wednesday and Thursday Love, who has achieved wonderful popularity, will be the headliner in a whimsically humorous and unusual photoplay, "The Helms at Coffee Dan's." A young waitress in a cheap restaurant tells everyone she is an heiress. Her associates plan a joke and introduce an attorney who is seeking a missing daughter of a wealthy financier. In the end the young lady proves to be the heiress. Friday and Saturday Dorothy Gish will be featured in a dramatic story about the mountain folk in Kentucky, entitled "The Children of the Forest." There will be other pictures daily, and the Strand Symphony Orchestra will render appropriate musical accompaniments.

Virginia—"Gloria's Romance."

Beginning Monday the Virginia Theater, in Ninth street, will present a series of admissions motion picture plays in the downtown district, will present Billie Burke in "Gloria's Romance," which is shown in twenty episodes. Each episode is shown on Sunday, a different episode will be featured. The series is completed, thus affording admirers of this actress opportunity to see the completed film without the customary week-long wait that is necessary when a serial play is first shown. "Gloria's Romance" is the human kind of story that will find echo in every heart.

Gayety—Burlesque.

Frank Harcourt, chief funmaker with "The Bowers Burlesques," next week's attraction at the Gayety Theater, commencing with the usual performances Sunday, is remembered by local patrons of burlesque for his eccentric and thoroughly original style of comedy. He receives able assistance from Billy Foster, Marty Seamon, Edna Green, and Grace Anderson. This year's vehicle is entitled "A Lobster Beach."

The second act presents a striking novelty, in that it is laid in the prison at Lobster Beach. It is a travesty on the celebrated Mutual Welfare League at Sing Sing.

Loew's Columbia—Mary Pickford.

"The Pride of the Clan," in which Mary Pickford is the star, will continue as the photoplay attraction at Loew's Columbia for the entire week. The little star long ago proved herself a lovable and delightful surprise when, when one such role has been compelled to suffer on the screen. But Mary invariably manages to "live happily ever after," and who wouldn't be an orphan if only for the thrill of being snatched from poverty at the eleventh hour, when one is convinced that happiness is a myth. In "The Pride of the Clan" Miss Pickford is ideally cast and she has the advantage of splendid support.

Twist—A motion picture proves that Dickens offers splendid material for the photoplay.

NO PENIONS FOR GERMANS.

London, Jan. 10.—It will be a long time after the conclusion of the war, even if Germany gets a satisfactory peace, before the German government will be able to furnish penions for the support of the war invalids. It was stated in a dispatch from Berlin today.
